MEMBERS THIS WEEK:

Jack Kalkman had a CT scan on Wednesday, January 25. He will be meeting with the cardiac/thoracic surgeon on Wednesday, February 8.

Russ Cook was hospitalized on Tuesday, January 31 after suffering a T.I.A. (mini-stroke). He came home on Thursday, February 2 and is doing very well.

Bill Huitema had a scoping procedure on Thursday, February 2 to determine if the earlier surgery and treatments for cancer were successful. Please pray for an encouraging and affirming report.

Jean Wynsma traveled to the Mayo Clinic on Tuesday, January 31 for tests regarding some recent abdominal pain and complications.

Jordan Hanges has continued to have vision concerns since the automobile accident of Fall 2010. Most recently, the doctors prescribed two forms of medication designed to relax and focus the optic nerves--while simultaneously providing necessary moisture for the eyes. Please pray that this combination will assist in restoring uninterrupted vision.

Derek Walton suffered a broken nose, fractured pelvis, a concussion and a cervical spine injury following a serious automobile accident on Tuesday, January 24. He is now recovering at home.

Jenny Bruins suffered a fall on Wednesday, January 25, breaking three bones in her hand; doctors believe surgery is not necessary.

Lu Meyer has been found to have an infection in the ankle that was broken. Therefore, doctors found it necessary to remove the external apparatus that was holding the ankle in proper position for healing. Pray that the infection is cured--and that the ankle can heal quickly and safely. Lu remains in the nursing home.

Linda Zwyghuizen, special-needs daughter of Harold and Jan, is moving to an adult care facility in Grand Haven today.

Randy Klein traveled to a U of M medical office in Ypsilanti the week of January 22 regarding a potential diagnosis of pancreatitis. He will return to the same clinic on Thursday, February 9 to undergo an endoscopic ultrasound of his pancreas.
